

Wanted Farms for Sale

If you want to sell Your Farm, come in and list it with me. My Rates are Reasonable, My Services are as Good as the Best. I sell Land direct from, and at Owner's Price, on commission only.

YOURS FOR HONORABLE DEALING,

A. W. Cotten
OREGON, HOLT CO., MO.

In purchasing a monument, we believe that it is your idea to get in touch with a dealer who has real values—goods that will satisfy—not goods that have nothing but a low price for an inducement, but goods that are quality-right and price-right.

A visit to our salesroom is solicited. Here you will find monuments, headstones and markers most effectively displayed, and you will be given efficient and intelligent attention.

Call at your convenience and examine personally the widest range of quality memorials ever exhibited in Northwest Missouri, at right prices.

Personal and Otherwise

—Miss Rowena Pierce, of the class of '17, now in the internal revenue department at Kansas City, came home to visit on Mother's Day with the folks at home, and to enjoy the commencement week exercises.

—Louden Hay Track, Carriers and Forges.

—We are sorry to hear that the old veteran of the medical profession of the county, Dr. J. M. Tracey, of Mound City, is in poor health, but we hope it is only a temporary indisposition.

—Jim Bishop and wife, of Mound City, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Martha Turnham.

—Mrs. Oscar Youa died suddenly at her home in Mound City, Saturday morning, May 8, aged 70 years. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters.

—For Sale—A choice Young Poland-China Herd Boar. See

WESS, ROSTOCK.

—Many bridges by reason of age are roting into decay. They cannot be replaced unless you vote the 50c bridge tax to enable the county court to replace them. If you want this, then vote YES, Saturday, May 15.

—For Sale—A spotted Poland male hog, an extra good breeder. Call on or address,

JAMES B. HINDE
Oregon, Mo.

—Jimmie Cain and wife, who have been taking the water cure at Excelsior Springs the past three weeks, returned home Saturday last.

—Allen Stanley, the Richville pedagogue, has received from the war department vocational board, notice permitting him to enter the law department of the Washington University at St. Louis.

—Mrs. Lottie Kennedy, who has been confined to her home the past four months, was able to come up town, Saturday last, which will surely be good news to her many, many friends.

—W. C. Proud, M. D., Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Specialist, Office, Physicians' & Surgeons' Building, 7th and Francis Sts., St. Joseph, Mo. —Miss Minnie Buetzer, stenographer for the Western Tablet Company, of St. Joseph, was a week-end visitor with the folks at home.

If you want bridges and culverts give the county court the money with which to build them—it is the only way you can get them. It is money that talks on such matters successfully.

—Albert Guthrie, of the Benton district, was here last Thursday, visiting his aunt, Mrs. Martha Turnham, and cousin, Mrs. Cyrus Kunkel.

—Miss Cora Frye is back from St. Joseph, where she has been at the bedside of her brother-in-law, George W. Meyer, of Mound City, who is reported to be a very sick man. He was operated upon Monday of this week, having his tonsils removed, and now they have hopes of his recovery.

—Mrs. Glenn Ruley, of Kansas City, has been spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Keeves, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ruley.

—Collector Alkire is sending out notices to those liable to come forward and pay their income taxes, which must be paid by June 1. If not paid by that time you are subject to the same penalties for being delinquent on your state and county tax, which is one per cent a month until paid.

—George W. Carter, of St. Joseph, had his preliminary hearing Friday of last week before Esquire J. E. Cummins, on the charge of being accessory to embezzlement, and he was bound over to await the action of the circuit court. The case grew out of the embezzlement of proceeds of sale of a car of wheat by J. C. Busselle, belonging to the Farmers' Elevator Company, of Forest City.

—Miss Dorothy Kurtz, who is attending Park College, Parkville, Mo., was home over Sunday, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kurtz, and also to attend the Baccalaureate services.

—Dr. Evans is now able to get out and enjoy the sunshine, but he has to use his additional two legs, even if they are wooden ones.

—L. R. Adams and Miss Eda Root, of Craig, obtained their marriage license in St. Joseph, Monday of this week, May 10.

—Rev. A. D. Seelig and wife, of Savannah, are here enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Cummins, and brother, Guy.

—Mrs. Lester Pettijohn has returned from her sad journey to Billings, Montana, where she attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. R. H. Livermore, who died April 26.

—Will Hodgins, of Maitland, was here Saturday, and he seemed a very busy man.

—James Patterson and son, Frank B., of Maitland, and Roy Nelsch, of Nodaway county, and Mike Cochran, of near New Point, were here interviewing Probate Judge Dungan, Saturday last.

—Louis Stalcup and wife, of Frankfort, Kansas, attended the funeral of his grandfather, Peter F. Baker, who was buried at Forbes, Friday last. They visited, of course, with her parents, Sheriff and Mrs. Ben Crouser.

—The Sentinel is pleased to have been remembered by the coming of a commencement card from Miss Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Seeman, who is a member of the graduating class of the Buffalo, Wyo., high school. It is the coming of such remembrances that reminds us of the flight of time. Helen used to be one of Oregon's very dearest girls, and we are glad she did not forget us.

—We are truly sorry that Henry Helfers, who was so badly injured in a run-away on his farm, near Craig, in July, 1919, is still in very bad condition, and unable to sit up, his lower limbs being paralyzed. The Corning Mirror says in his long siege of ten months' confinement that he is cheerful and hopeful, and his friends have hopes under the present treatment that he will soon improve. We all would rejoice to see Henry up and about.

—Dr. F. E. Hogan tells us that Ben Kirk was presented with a fine young farmer lad, by his wife, on Mother's Day, May 9.

—Dr. Evans is out on duty now at his office, and ready to prescribe for you.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

—Mrs. L. P. Watson, of Wisconsin, is visiting friends in and around Forest City, and she spent Sunday at the W. H. Alkire home.

—A. W. VanCamp, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Minton, of Fortescue, came down Sunday, and spent the day with her sister and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alkire.

—Hi. Montgomery, wife and children, accompanied by Mother Hoblitzell, came down from Skidmore, and enjoyed Mother's Day with his best friend—his dear, good mother and father.

—If you want bridges and culverts to enable you to get your products to market, the only way you can get them is to vote the money, so the county court can have them constructed. The only way to do this is to vote May 15 for the 50c bridge and culvert tax.

—J. G. Giddens and family, of near Hiawatha, Kansas, are now among us as citizens, having leased the old Geo.

Quick place, south of Forest City. They appear to be a mighty clever bunch of people, and we bid them welcome among us. The son, Howard, served in the navy during the World War, as a member of the crew of the good ship, Louisiana.

—We are in receipt of a handsome commencement card, announcing the graduation exercises of the McAllen, Texas, high school. Miss Valera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Dankers, was a member of the class, and we extend her our sincere congratulations. The Dankers family removed from Oregon to McAllen last year.

—It is up to you, Mr. Farmer, to decide whether or not you want the necessary bridges and culverts, so you can market your products. If you do, vote YES on the 50c tax proposition, on Saturday, May 15.

—We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish you The Sentinel and Weekly Kansas City Star, one year, for only $2.25.

—Ed Freeman and James Riley are here to begin the decorating of the Mrs. T. C. Dungan and Charles Zachman handsets homes. They have just completed a similar job for Alf. Kunkel, near New Point.

—Mrs. Harry Johnson and niece, Miss Helen Johnson, of Kansas City, are here to enjoy a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Olivia Walker, and brother, Lawrence, and other relatives.

—Guy L. Cummins, Leona, and Helen Markt, John Merum and family, Albert Seeman and wife, Mrs. W. Dawson and son, Wallace, were St. Joseph visitors, Monday.

—George Ennis, of Rock Port, now nearing his 80th mile post, is visiting relatives and old-time comrades here. He is a wonderfully well preserved man.

—Will Kollmer, of St. Joseph, was here, Tuesday of this week, attending probate court.
